Orientation for Teachers

June 13, 2016

Categories: News

13th June 2016 marked a beautiful beginning for the teachers of Carmel Convent High School with an Orientation Programme conducted by the School Management. Our illuminary for the day was Sr. Pearl Ann, Principal of Carmel Convent High School, Bandra. Love , Love is known to all, seen felt in different ways, but our Speaker brought forth the importance of love in a unique way. Her session began with a complementing activity for the teachers, going on to elaborating on the 5 Love Languages. This perspective was an unexplored field altogether.

Her words encouraged our teachers in ways that have no bound Language. The 1st love took us through the words of affirmation, going to the second which was time spending the gift of giving to the noble acts of service and so on.

With all that she brought to lime light and took us beyond the horizon we knew of.

Our teachers were highly enthusiastic energetic after receiving this session full of positivity and goodness.

We thank our Principal for inviting Sr. Pearl Ann and infusing into us The spirit of love.

AN ADIEU

June 16, 2016

Categories: News

A New beginning, a new session in all the excitement and work, we had to bid an adieu to one of our dear Sister, Sr. Jacintha A.C, as she had been transferred to another Convent of ours at Nagpur. Indeed it was sad, but we had to let her go, as part of her work.

In honour of her service at our Institution, we held a farewell programme, which like all others began with prayer service, intercessory prayers for her, her family, her future. One of our teachers read a few beautiful lines of poetry dedicated to her. Our senior teacher, Tr. Treza Tony in her well-spoken speech took us through all of Sr. Services devoted to our School. Later, Our Principal felicitated our beloved Sr. and also enlightened us a little more on Sr. Jasintha.

Our dear Sr.Jasintha A.C was overwhelmed seeing our love and gratitude towards her with a very short speech; she thanked and blessed each one.

We Carmelites had Spell Bee Competition for Std V-VI on 8th October 2016. Teachers Anvita and Rekha were in charge of Spell Bee was conducted prior one week for selecting the students. From the first round around 50 students were selected both from V-VI, then the second round was conducted with tough spellings from which 12 students were chosen. The finale was conducted on 8th October, where we had four rounds. Four groups with 3 students present in each group. Sr. Sushmita our dearest Principal she too was present in the audience to have a look at the Quiz. Both the teachers had appointed four judges viz Tr. Sudha, Tr. Sreelata, Tr. Sulekha and Tr. Tereza. Anvita Tr. hosted the whole programme with each and every round explained to the participants very thoroughly. First round (Buzzer round) where each group had time to buzz to spell out the spellings, from which group 3 got eliminated, second round was 30 sec time limit, word to spell out how much spellings one can spell out from that again group 1 got eliminated. Now remained group 2 and group 1 where we had subjective round, participants to pick out the chits. The judges would decide the subject and give them the word, which the participants will spell out. Last round was "Hard not to crack" where each group participant had to decide how many points they could give or decide to gain marks and when they spell out the words properly. Finally group '4' was declared as winner.

Lastly, vote of thanks was delivered by Tr. Rekha. V-VI std students thoroughly enjoyed all the four rounds on the finale day which was been conducted, overall it was very informative tricky and good to scratch our brains.

Choral Recitation Competition (Classes: I-IV)

October 8, 2016

Categories: News

“Poetry is when an emotion has found its thought and the thought had found words. Poetry is the rhythmical creation of beauty in words. Poetry comes alive to me, through recitation”.

Oh! What a beautiful way to express something through innocent words and expression in a melody with all smiles and giggles. That is what our students of standards I to IV did on 8th October 2016, with all their confidence and courage to stand before the audience; recite loudly and clearly. All the poems were based on values. The students recited with a lot of zeal and enthusiasm. The judges were invited to witness the competition. They were Sr. Amabella, Tr. Tereza and Tr. Girija. After the performance our esteemed judges shared their encouraging thoughts with the students. At the concluding part of this event, Tr. Nutan delivered the vote of thanks, expressing her gratitude to all those who contributed in making this event a success, with a special thanks to our dearest Principal Sr. Sushmita, who is indeed our greatest support.

Hence, after the conclusion of this event, I can say that the best teamwork comes from people who are working independently, towards one goal, in unison.
