Shiv Nadar University Delhi NCR Phase 3 of Early UG Admission

Shiv Nadar University (SNU) Delhi NCR, a leading Institution of Eminence, has announced Phase 3 of its early admissions cycle for undergraduate (UG) programs for the academic year 2025-26. Notably, SNU Delhi NCR is distinct from SNU Chennai, with separate admission processes and eligibility criteria. Aspiring students, parents, and school counselors are encouraged to explore this opportunity to join one of India's most prestigious universities, known for its interdisciplinary approach and global collaborations.

Important dates:-

- The last date to apply for Phase 3 is 31 March 2025, and the SNUSAT exam for this phase will be held on 06 April 2025.

Selection Methodology:

Admissions are based on a combination of entrance exams and interviews. For instance, the School of Engineering accepts JEE Mains scores, while other schools may require SNUSAT (Shiv Nadar University Scholastic Aptitude Test) or a combination of SNUSAT and subject-specific interviews. Some programs also consider SAT or ACT scores for eligibility.
