When teachers meet AI- the learning never stops!

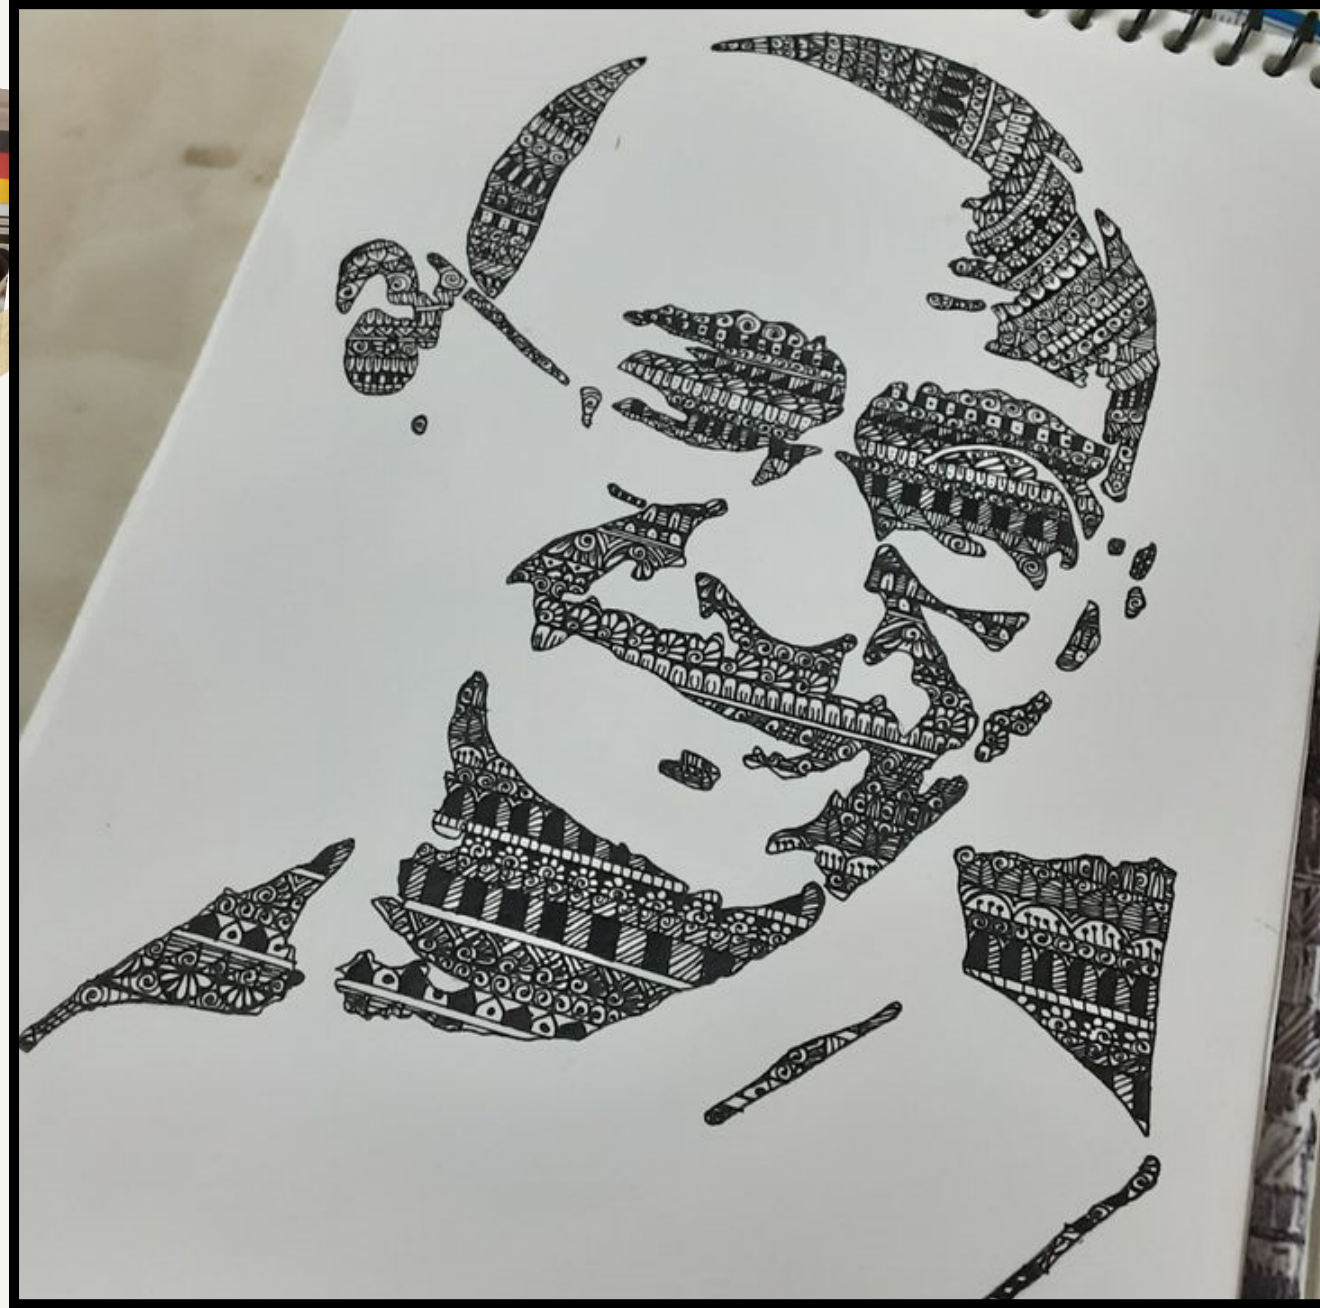

In keeping with our ethos of empowering educators and making them future-ready, the LVISN Senior Wing conducted an AI Workshop on 27th September 2026. Led by IT Head, Mr. Anshuman Sharma, the session introduced tools such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google Gemini, and Microsoft Copilot, showcasing their classroom applications in lesson planning, assessments, and content creation. Teachers engaged in hands-on practice and reflective discussion on the possibilities and limitations of generative AI. The workshop reinforced our commitment to pedagogical strengthening through innovation, while underscoring the importance of using AI responsibly and ethically in education.
