CELEBRATES CHRISTMAS WITH FESTIVE SPIRIT

Presentation Convent Sr. Sec. School, Gandhi Nagar, celebrated Christmas midst cheer and gaiety on 20 December 2025 in the school premises. Students of classes IX and XI presented a festive play, 'Annie- The Emissary of Hope' which saw an overwhelming response from the audience. Most Rev. Bishop Ivan Pereira, Bishop, Jammu-Srinagar Diocese, was the Chief Guest on the occasion and Dr. Pragya Khanna, Principal, Govt. Degree College, Hiranagar, was the Guest of Honour. The play was witnessed by members of the Managing Committee, dignitaries, former teachers and parents.

This momentous occasion marked the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the founding of the Presentation Congregation and was a befitting tribute to its Founder, Venerable Nano Nagle. The opening ceremony highlighted the inspiring journey of the Presentation Congregation and set the tone for a memorable event, emphasizing the spirit of collaboration, hope and celebration that defined the special occasion.

The festal play 'Annie - The Emissary of Hope', beautifully embodied the spirit of Christmas—hope, love and renewal. Despite life's challenges, she inspires those around her with unwavering optimism, reflecting the true meaning of Christmas. Her compassionate heart and faith in the goodness of humanity reminded all that, just like Christmas, hope can brighten even the darkest days. Through her kindness and resilience, Annie exemplified the transformative power of Christmas love, inspiring all to embrace it and keep it alive.

The guests, in their speeches, congratulated the Congregation for its enlightening presence and expressed gratitude for the moments of togetherness and the healing power of love and compassion.
